Call to Worship

One: Come into the presence of God, just as you are!
Many: Bring your willingness and your reluctance, your hope and your hesitation.
One: God keeps speaking to us, even when we feel reluctant.
Many: In storm and in stillness, the Holy keeps reaching for us.
One: God's compassion is wider than our fears and deeper than our grudges.
Many: Thanks be to God, who never gives up on us.

Opening Prayer (together)

Loving God, your Spirit moves at a peculiar pace. You do not rush our growth, yet you never stop calling us. Like Jonah, we board ships headed away from the dreams you have for us. We sleep through life's storms. And sometimes, it feels like life swallows us whole. We wonder if we will ever find our way back to the light. Yet even there, in the belly of our greatest fears, you hear us cry out. You do not abandon us to the deep. Meet us in our running and in our reflection. Bring us back to dry land, and make us willing partners in our own transformation, and faithful to the urgent cries of our time. Amen.

Pastoral Prayer

Lord's Prayer (please use the wording with which you are most familiar.)
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.
